

THE NEWS OF THE COMPETITION NOTICE FOR THE ALLOCATION OF SCHOLARSHIPS AND SERVICES FOR UNIVERSITY STUDENT WELFARE A.Y. 2023/2024.

1. The income limits to participate in the competition for the allocation of scholarships A.Y. 2023/2024 have been raised. The ISEE indicator must not exceed €26,306.25; the ISPE indicator must not exceed €57,187.53.
2. The transmission of documentation regarding income and assets held abroad and documentation concerning statelessness and/or international protection status must be exclusively carried out by uploading them on the Agency's portal www.adisu.umbria.it.
3. For students enrolled in the single-cycle master's degree in Veterinary Medicine and the bachelor's degree programs in Animal Production, Obstetrics, and Food Science and Technology, the minimum merit requirements for receiving benefits have been reduced (see table in the Competition Notice).
4. The maximum amount attributed to students as a contribution for international mobility is increased to €800.00.
5. The non-resident student who is eligible for a bed space but renounces housing services and/or is not assigned accommodation due to unavailability can present the rental contract until December 20, 2023, for the purpose of receiving the cash portion of the scholarship in the amount provided for non-resident students with paid accommodation.
6. The non-resident student who does not submit the rental contract for paid accommodation within the deadlines established by the competition notice will retain the non-resident status with the benefit of two daily meals and the scholarship will be granted in the cash amount provided for non-resident students assigned a bed space (reduced by €1,800.00).
7. The classification of municipalities for determining student status undergoes the following changes: the municipalities of Castel Ritaldi, Città della Pieve, Massa Martana, and Montefalco change to non-resident status with respect to the university seat in Perugia; the municipality of Fossato di Vico changes to non-resident status with respect to the university seat in Assisi; the municipalities of Campello sul Clitunno, Sant'Anatolia di Narco, and Vallo di Nera change to non-resident status with respect to the university seat in Terni; the municipalities of Labro, Massa Martana, Rieti, Sant'Anatolia di Narco, and Scheggino change to non-resident status with respect to the university seat in Narni; the municipalities of Collazzone, Marsciano, Massa Martana, Todi, and Valfabbrica change to non-resident status with respect to the university seat in Foligno.